THE PROPOSED BANKRUPT LAV

The Feeling in Canada in Regard to the Reciprocity Treaty.

CAPTURE OF REBELS IN MISSOURI. &c.,

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26, 1862. THE PROPOSED BANKRUPT LAW. The bankrupt law proposed by the merchants of New York is generally considered as just and equitable for the protection of creditors and the relief of debtors. It meets with general favor. The source from whence it emanates entitles it to great consideration. It will doubtless meet with some modifications, but probably will pass in the main as it now is.

The following petition has been handed to Hon. Rosec Conking, and will be by him presented to Congress:— To the Honorable the Senate and House of Represent fully represent, that the passage by Congress of a gene ral bankrupt act, is carnestly desired by numeron relief, in view of the existing state of our mational affairs. It is believed that the many important rights and interests, which will be affected by the legislation thus proposed, can be fully protected by the establishment of a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States, based upon such provisions as will secure the relief of honest but unfortunate debtors, upon the surrender of their property, and an equitable distribution of the same among their creditors. Aiready leading merchants and bankers, fully representing the commercial interests of the city of New York, have caused the preparation of a general bankrupt act, which has been approved by them, and is about being submitted to the pro per Congressional committee. The act thus proposed com-bines all the essential requisites of protection to creditors relief to debtors, safety to the public, and, in its various details, provides for the efficient administration of the system in the extended territory, and the various exi-gencies to which it is intended to apply. The undersigned unite in expressing their approval of the proceed-ings already had, and is recommending such further action as may be necessary to secure, by all proper means, the adoption by Congress of a general bankrupt act, conforming in its provisions to the princip

THE CANADA RECIPROCITY TREATY. The hope is expressed in high quarters in Canada that our government and Congress will do nothing in regard to the Reciprocity treaty to disturb the friendly relations now existing between this country and Canada, but that whatever shall be done will be arranged with a view to promote and strengthen them, as far as it can be done onsistently with our own interests. UNFOUNDED REPORTS OF A BATTLE AT BOWLING GREEN.

There is a report in the city to-night that Judge McCook has recovered a despatch announcing another battle in Kentucky, at Bowling Green, and that the federal forces were beaten. As this report is generally believed, and may find its way into the press, I will state that upon investigation of the matter, I can state upon the highest authority that the report is not true. The federal prisoners recently released from confine ment in robel prisons have received their pay proper, but have been refused any allowance for rations during their absence. This denial is in strict accordance with the law and regulations, but it is hoped that measure will be taken to make these sufferers the allowance of this poor pittance.

These are, by far, the most valuable and authentic memorials of the Pater Patrice Mr. Smith, Secretary of the Interior Department deserves the thanks of the people for affording Mr. Lyon every facility to effect their most perfect preservation. It will be remembered that Mrs. Lee, the wife of the rebel General and daughter of G. W. P. Parke Custis, of Arlington, and his knowledge of these articles during the old patriot's life time, would have been unwittingly stolen or destroyed by the soldiers or servants, as indeed many of them have been. The extension of the track of the Baltimore and Ohio Raliroad along Maryland avenue, and across the Long Bridge to Alexandria, is in rapid progress. Its completion will save the government a vast amount of expense of transhipment and wagoning of supplies from the Washington Raliroad depot to the various camps on the south side of the river. When this connection is finished userly all of them can be approached within a very short distance by railroad.
